You can also query the BRIP system programatically from your server, using our API.

Your personal token to query the API : eyJ0eXAiOiJKV1QiLCJhbGciOiJIUzI1NiJ9.InRob21hc0BhZGZyZWV0aW9ucy5jby51ayI.BuS-HCwNpGrLNxXpGkFbY_3Qh4gNGMr0szDtnnTGls

This token must be included with every API query.

Query per domain

If you want to know whether a specific domain has been flagged as infringing by a contributor (authority).

```
post("brip.wipo.com", {
  "domain": "somesite.com",
  "token" : "eyJ0eXAiOiJKV1QiLCJhbGciOiJIUzI1NiJ9.InRob21hc0BhZGZyZWV0aW9ucy5jby51ayI.BuS-HCwNpGrLNxXpGkFbY_3Qh4gNGMr0szDtnnTGls"
```

N.B.: The domain name can be "dirty", i.e. `https://www.somesite.com/page/index.html`, it will be cleaned up automatically to just `domain.com`.

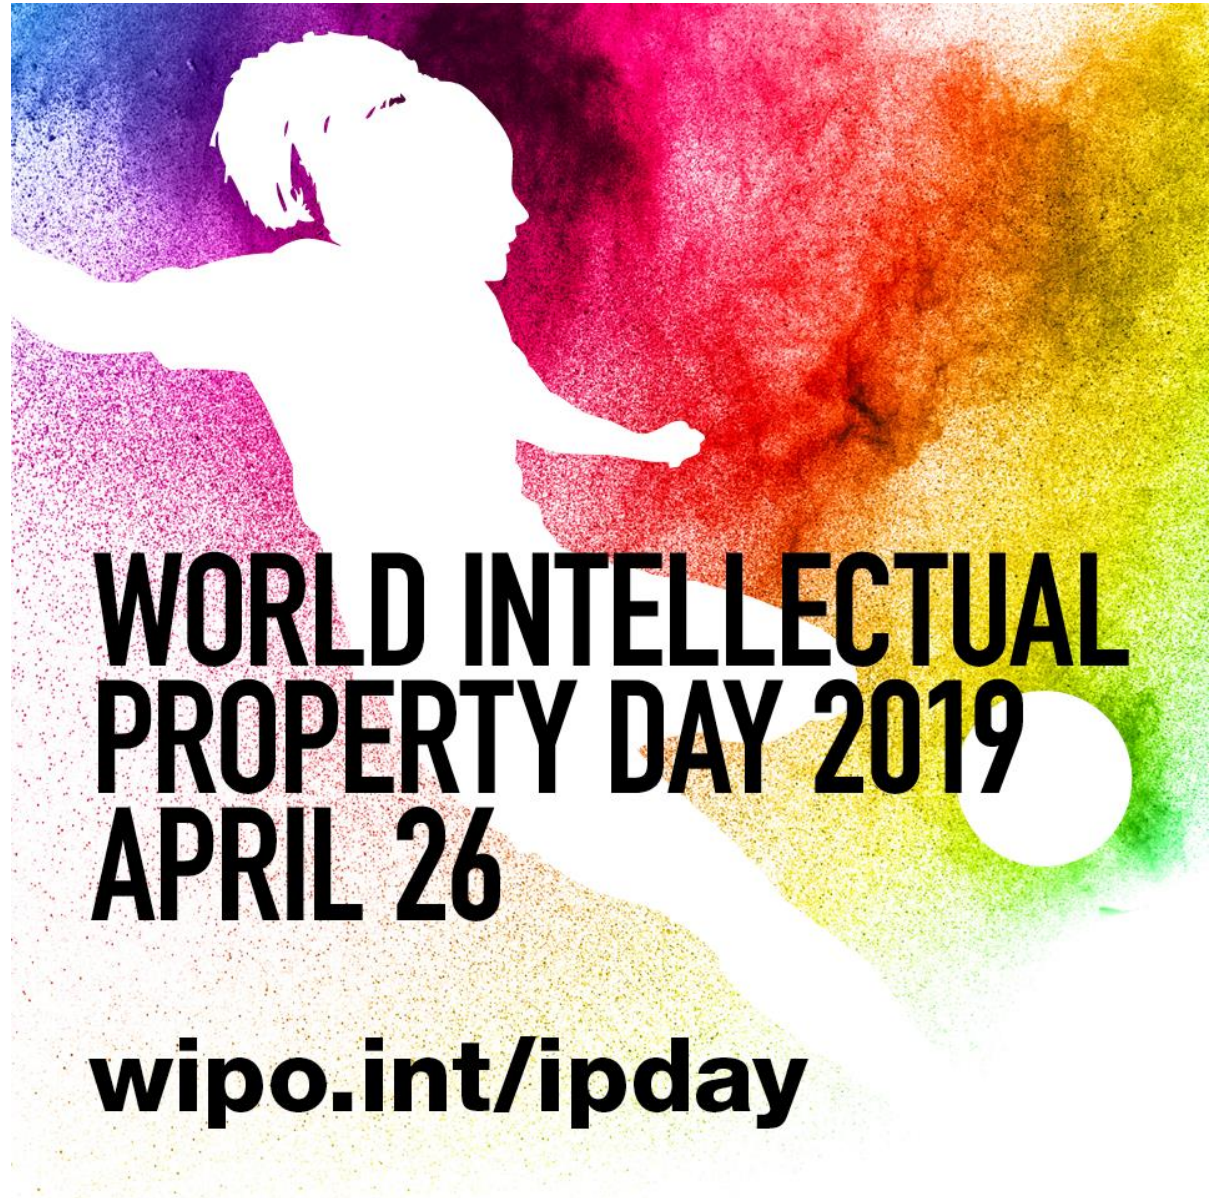

API response :

```
{
  "status": "success",
  "domain": "somesite.com",
  "took": 1.02,
  "flagged": true,
  "by" : [{
    "cc": "US",
    "name": "Some US National Contributor",
    "website": "http://www.someusnationalcontributor.gov"
  }]

success	Whether the operation succeeded, or there was a technical error. Possible values : "success", "error". In case of error, an additional error key is added to the API response, with more details about what happened.
domain	The cleaned up domain the query was performed against.

Next steps

- Promote platform
- Secure formal commitments from contributors and users
- Consider wider applications
